

It does not make sense to keep satellite radio from giving traffic & weather reports. I travel all over the USA in a motorhome and satellite radio is the only place I will be able to find this info. The big boys do not give enough reports to do any good. If they gave it 24-7 and had a way to let people who are not familiar with the area OK, but they don't and will not.